

October 23
1844

My dear Sir

Ever since my return I have been so busy that I could not write an answer about the Pageant.

I am very sorry, but I cannot get ad it till my return to London.

If you would only have come in and asked me for it, knowing that there is an order for your being always admitted I should have been much happy to look for it

Yours very truly
John

Deane.

Triumphs of Honor & Industry
London 1617.